Dear Mr. Temianka:

I enjoyed talking to you very much and I am delighted to know of your willingness to be with us this summer at Blossom, 1972. I am certain that your contribution to the Blossom Festival School will be much appreciated by students and colleagues alike.

As per our agreement, the financial arrangement will be $3,200.00 for six weeks and we will furnish a small apartment for you, Mrs. Temianka and your young son.

As to the car situation, I have just found out that there is no chance of the University renting you a car. Because of its insurance, the University only rents cars to its faculty and University representatives. I am certain that with some of our cheap rental agencies around here, we can help you get an automobile to your satisfaction very easily and quite reasonably.

A teaching schedule is usually about 15 hours a week, consisting of applied lessons and coaching of chamber groups. I hope this is satisfactory.

I cannot begin to say how fortunate we feel to have you associate with us in the Blossom Festival School. Our students will benefit so much and, after all, what else is more important? Thank you and I look forward to meeting you again.

Yours very truly,

Lindsey Merrill
Director
School of Music
